- for those who want to help out.
- The angry birds are SWEET. Thanks very much Steph.
- Lets get some class annoucements about the pub crawl going on.
- We need a date for the final exec meeting. At 9 we can go to the Keg for cheap appies on friday. July 29th. The one downtown is nicer.
- We need to sell the pub crawl HARD.
- Look in to getting a ring sizer

Steph:

- Jason and Steph will start building card costumes tomorrow.
- Coop meeting tomorrow, we really need people to come. There will be a meeting after this meeting to make an agenda for it.
- 10 people filled out the Coop feedback form. We can give that to the Coop people.
- Steph want sto do the Order of Pi costumes for her term project. We are the next stream to do order of Pi. We have all of the fabric that we need for it.
- The old site for Coop is going down at the end of August.

Austin:

- Congradulations to all of the winners of WEC. All the winners are from the ESS... big suprise.
- Industry Social, needs to be promoted. Tell your friends that they have to be there or you won't be friends with them anymore. 5:00 PM in the Lobby July 27th. People need to register as soon as possible. The URL will be posted soon. It's on APEG
 - What is the social? You talk to people in the social, and there is free food and a speaker. Free Food. There are 20 industry representativse coming, so there had better be a lot of people there.
 - There are already 7 students registered.
- A discussion with Alec from UBC to bus to calgary. It is WAAAy more economically feasible.
 - Things to look into, whether or not bus driver will drive that long
 - Liquor liscence.
 - Leaving a day early

Jacob:

- Need credit card transactions, itinerarys and a letter saying why we don't have boarding passes.
- The printer is running up a Massice deficit. (about $900)
- We have student fees, so we have money. Yay. We got more money from student fee's then expected.

Joel:

- Do we still have paper. Joel is going to try and make this issue EPIC. The due date is before the weekend. By sunday mid afternoon at the latest.
- End of term wrap up stuff:
 - Stuff from the ESS exec -> here's what we did this semester.
 - Tom give joel info about the catapult stuff.

Nigel:
